

MARKWARD DAY CAMP

LOCATED @ MARKWARD PLAYGROUND, 400 S. TANEY ST., 19146

CAMP NEWS: Week of July 25, 2011

Rob, Jamal and Sei were caught taking a much needed break at the Elmwood Park Zoo trip. Ms. Danielle was glad to see those favorite friends getting their zen on at the zoo. They were very eager to see the different animals at the zoo. Sei and Rob said that they enjoyed petting the Sheep and seeing the Jaguar and Cheetah asleep in their cages. Jamal preferred observing the animals from a safe distance.

Please do not send your child to camp with glass bottles. Thanks!

Ms. Moriah moved with her family to Philly from Boston, when she was in the 1st grade. She has attended Markward Camp ever since moving to Philly. She attends St. Andrews boarding school in Delaware where she helped establish their theater group. Her crew team placed 6th at the Stotesbury Regatta. Ms. Moriah's ideal leisure activity is reading books.

Mr. Rob was introduced to Markward Camp by his cousin Frank. He enjoys being at this camp because of the freedom that each child has in deciding what they can do. Mr. Rob will be attending Immaculata University this fall where he will be studying Mathematics. While apprenticing for a metalist not too long ago, Mr. Rob got to polish the Liberty Bell.

Mr. Mike is a first year counselor at Markward Camp. Affectionately known as "Mike-Mike", he likes being a counselor because he doesn't get picked on by others anymore. He will be attending the Philadelphia Mennonite School this fall as a freshman. He also enjoys playing football for the Overbrook Monarchs while maintaining an eclectic taste in music and movies.

Next week, look for Mr. Ryan, Mr. Frank & Ms. Gabby.
